

REV ERIC DOBSON

LEADER/MEMBER

PERSONAL PROFILE

---

Reverend Eric Dobson serves as an Officer for the New Jersey Coalition of Religious Leaders.

CONTACT

---

 510 Park Boulevard | Cherry Hill, NJ | 08002

 wstokes@dioceseofnj.org

 (856) 665-5444

 n/a

EDUCATION

---

Rev. Dobson holds a BA Degree in Religion from Temple University.

PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

---

Reverend Eric Dobson is the Deputy Director of the Fair Share Housing Center, whose Mission is to end discriminatory or exclusionary housing patterns which have deprived the poor, particularly those presently living in inner cities, of the opportunity to reside in an environment which offers safe, decent, and sanitary housing.

Rev Dobson has received numerous awards including the NAACP Drum Major award, the Camden County Board of Chosen Freeholders Community Service Award, Champion of Diversity Award from the Courier Post South Jersey and the Thomas Fortune Social Justice Award.

He co-founded Open Communities a racial integration consultant firm. Rev. Dobson also founded a non-profit focused on youth development and education called Planting Seeds of Hope. In 2008 Rev. Dobson joined the Organizing for America staff to serve as Pennsylvania Black Clergy Outreach Director of the Obama Campaign.